UNIVERSITY OF THE PACIFIC

BEST DAY EVER!

2018 COMMENCEMENT

Dear Graduates,

The day you have been waiting for is here. And what a wonderful day of celebration it is! This day will become a memorable milestone because it marks the accomplishments of a journey toward a life of meaning and purpose.

One of the hallmarks of a Pacific education is to provide our students with a strong academic foundation, rooted in the liberal arts. Our students gain the skills and knowledge necessary for success in the 21st century through experiential learning, robust career preparation, and a diverse community. Our faculty takes deep interest in our students' discovery of their talents, providing an unparalleled landscape of learning. Our outcomes demonstrate our students' success: for the students that graduated last year, 92.5 percent were employed, accepted to graduate or professional school, completing a post-graduate internship, or working for a service organization within six months. We know that our Class of 2018 will truly excel as well.

Whether our students have started as traditional undergraduates, transfer students or non-traditional students completing their degrees, they leave Pacific with all that is necessary to bolster their success in their careers and serve as contributing members of their communities. Congratulations to our graduates and to all of those who have helped them reach this wonderful achievement.

Pamela A. Eibeck
President

DID YOU KNOW?

Pacific adds more than $578 million to Northern California's economy annually and has a total employment impact of 4,200+ jobs.

Pacific students completed 19,000 hours of community service in 2016-17, serving a variety of local, regional and national organizations.

Pacific's Mobile Medicare Clinics have served 3,000 Medicare enrollees and saved beneficiaries more than $2.2 million in out-of-pocket prescription drug costs, an average savings of $769 per person per year.

Pacific's dental clinics handled 118,000 patient visits and provided $12.2 million in free dental care in 2016-17.

“Pacific inspired me to continually learn and expand the perspective through which I see the world.”

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Dianne Philibosian '68

Dianne Philibosian '68 is an alumnus of the university and a nationally known expert in the field of early childhood education. As a student at Pacific, she double majored in French and Theatre Arts.

She earned her master's and doctoral degrees at Southern Illinois University and spent several years helping establish and train the workforce at the first Head Start program in the state of Illinois.

In her 20 years of service as a member of Pacific's Board of Regents, including being the first woman to serve as chair, Philibosian has provided important leadership to Pacific and is a highly respected leader in higher education.

In addition to serving as director of CSU Northridge's Institute for Community Health and Wellbeing, Philibosian also served as associate dean of the College of Health and Human Development and held several faculty positions.

Philibosian has been recognized on numerous occasions for her contributions in education, including being the first recipient of the Excellence in Education Award from the Child Care Resource Center of Los Angeles, the Extraordinary Service Award from CSU Northridge and the Medallion of Excellence from the University of the Pacific Alumni Association for outstanding and exceptional service to the university.

She lives in Pasadena, California, with her husband, Thomas Seifert.

OUR SCHOOLS, MAJORS AND PROGRAMS

Pacific's eleven schools and college on its three campuses offer students their choice of 80-plus majors, including 21 graduate programs and 12 accelerated program options. Students can go directly into professional programs, including pharmacy, dentistry and law, or accelerated programs in business, engineering, education and health sciences.

College of the Pacific (1851)

The College of the Pacific is the oldest and largest academic unit, encompassing 18 departments and 29 majors in the natural sciences, social sciences, humanities and the fine and performing arts. Based upon its foundation of a rigorous liberal arts curriculum, the College champions experiential learning through undergraduate research and creative activity, fieldwork, internships, and study abroad. The College prepares graduating students to command a broad perspective in their professional careers, ready to assume the responsibilities of leadership.

Conservatory of Music (1878)

Pacific's Conservatory of Music has been delivering an outstanding music education for more than 135 years. Degree programs are offered in performance, composition, jazz, education, management, music therapy and history. Conservatory faculty artists/scholars provide a rigorous and supportive learning environment. Students have access to a recording studio, technology and composition labs. Seminars and master classes with accomplished alumni and visiting artists, along with numerous performance and other experiential opportunities, help prepare graduates for professions in music.

Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry (1896)

The nationally renowned Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry, named in honor of its dean of 28 years, is committed to providing a world-class dental education for its students and comprehensive, affordable patient care for adults and children. The Dugoni School is highly regarded for its humanistic model of education that respects the dignity of each individual and for innovation in dental curriculum, including comprehensive patient care and competency-based education. Its programs include an accelerated year-round pre-doctoral DDS program that enables students to complete four academic years of instruction in three calendar years.

McGeorge School of Law (1924)

McGeorge educates lawyers for large and small law firms, government agencies and corporate legal departments around the world. McGeorge's success is built on its distinguished faculty, high-quality students, committed and involved alumni, and beautiful, spacious campus with state-of-the-art classrooms and student facilities. McGeorge is a dynamic law school that is changing and growing to meet the challenges of the global economy and to educate the lawyers who will be tomorrow's leaders.

Gladys L. Benerd School of Education (1924)

The Gladys L. Benerd School of Education, named in honor of an alumna's endowed gift, has educated future professionals in learning, education and leadership roles for more than 90 years. Benerd School faculty prepare students for service in public and private education and learning-related professions in other sectors; provide programs for current educational professionals to update and upgrade their understanding, knowledge and skills; and promote and engage in research leading to better education and learning.

Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy and Health Sciences (1955)

The Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy and Health Sciences is named in honor of the financial commitment of the Thomas J. Long Foundation and the Long family. The School offers a three-year accelerated pharmacy program, provides speech-language pathology students early clinical experience, prepares highly trained audiologists and produces practice-ready physical therapists. The School is committed to creating a leadership focused, success-centered environment for its diverse student body. Students are empowered to succeed through meaningful, experiential learning in state-of-the-art laboratories. The School's programs have received continuous national accreditation.

Graduate School (1956)

Founded in 1956, the Graduate School collaborates with University of the Pacific's academic schools and colleges to offer more than 30 master's, doctoral, and graduate certificate programs, serving graduate students on Pacific's Stockton, San Francisco and Sacramento campuses. The school serves as the central, student-centered resource for graduate admission, education and services at the University and works to promote and support the success and development of Pacific's diverse graduate population.

School of Engineering and Computer Science (1957)

The School of Engineering and Computer Science empowers its students to solve problems by developing their own projects and working alongside professors on contemporary research. The School's faculty take each student's education personally and are committed to mentoring them both inside and outside of the classroom. With its distinguished cooperative education program, students also get to "learn and earn" through a paid professional internship, built right into the curriculum, with one of the School's 200-plus industry partners worldwide.

University College (1972)

University College was founded in 1972 to meet the needs of a growing number of adult learners returning to higher education to finish their bachelor's degrees or seeking continuing education to advance their careers. Today the college remains committed to serving non-traditional students and working adults by offering degree completion programs on the Stockton and Sacramento campuses, along with a full suite of continuing education and certificate programs for working adults, corporate training and lifelong learners.

Eberhardt School of Business (1977)

The Eberhardt School of Business was renamed in 1995 in recognition of the Eberhardt family's endowed gifts. Fully accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business, the School boasts a $3 million Eberhardt Student Investment Fund, a dedicated Career Management Center, top-rated faculty, state-of-the-art classroom technology, and exceptional experiential learning opportunities. The School offers valuable leadership development and business resources through its centers and institutes, including the Center for Business and Policy Research, Center for Entrepreneurship, Westgate Center for Leadership and Management Development and Institute for Family Business.

School of International Studies (1987)

A school within College of the Pacific, the School of International Studies is devoted to the interdisciplinary study of international affairs. International, interdisciplinary and intercultural immersion, acquisition of at least one second language, and at least a semester of study abroad prepare students to succeed in a variety of professions in industry, government, not-for-profit organizations and educational institutions. The School's programs help students develop strong analytical reasoning ability and strengthen written and oral communication skills while building intercultural competence and personal confidence.

SCHOOL AND COLLEGE BANNERS

School and college banners signifying each of the academic units of the University precede a unit's faculty in the procession and are displayed during the ceremony. The color of the banner symbolizes the academic discipline.

College of the Pacific

The golden yellow field of this banner represents the sciences, while the white letters signify the arts and humanities.

University Library

This banner's lemon-yellow color represents the library sciences. The Library has supported teaching, learning and scholarship since Pacific's founding in 1851. It is home to many special collections, including the papers of naturalist John Muir and musician Dave Brubeck.

Conservatory of Music

The tradition of representing music with the color pink originated at Oxford University.

Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry

The lilac color of dentistry forms the field for this banner. Founded in 1896 as the College of Physicians and Surgeons, the School became part of the University in 1962.

McGeorge School of Law

Purple, a color traditionally associated with royalty and governance, represents the law. Named in honor of its founder, Verne Adrian McGeorge, the School opened in 1924 and merged with Pacific in 1966.

Gladys L. Benerd School of Education

The light blue field signifies disciplines related to education.

Thomas J. Long School of Pharmacy and Health Sciences

Pharmacy is represented by olive green, a color associated with healing herbs.

Graduate School

Red-orange signifies this division, which was established in 1956 as Pacific expanded its graduate degree offerings.

School of Engineering and Computer Science

This banner's orange represents the engineering and computer science disciplines. The School was founded in 1957 from a department that dates to the 1930s.

University College

Red-orange signifies the multi-disciplinary nature of University College, established in 1972 to meet the educational needs of non-traditional students, working adults and lifelong learners.

Eberhardt School of Business

The School's banner features an olive-brown field.

School of International Studies

Peacock blue symbolizes the field of international studies. The School was established in 1987 with a gift from George and Isabelle Wilson.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE OF THE UNIVERSITY MACE

Originally a weapon used in medieval warfare, the mace evolved by the 12th century into a symbolic device used on ceremonial occasions and borne before monarchs, mayors and parliaments. The mace, as an academic symbol, dates back to the 15th century at the University of St. Andrews in Scotland. The use of maces as symbols of academic authority spread to other universities in the British Isles and, from there, to America.

Robert E. Burns, Pacific president from 1946 to 1971, asked Stuart Devlin, an internationally known London silver designer, to create University of the Pacific's mace. It was commissioned in recognition of the university's transition from a college to a university and was first used at a Founders Day ceremony on March 6, 1966. Constructed entirely of silver with a gold plated seal of the university in its head, the mace weighs 15 pounds and is approximately four feet long. It was a gift from Mrs. Winifred Olson Raney, a regent of the university. The mace is displayed at all official university functions, including Commencement and Convocation. It is traditionally carried by the chair of the Academic Council to symbolize the role of the faculty in university governance.

SIGNIFICANCE OF ACADEMIC REGALIA

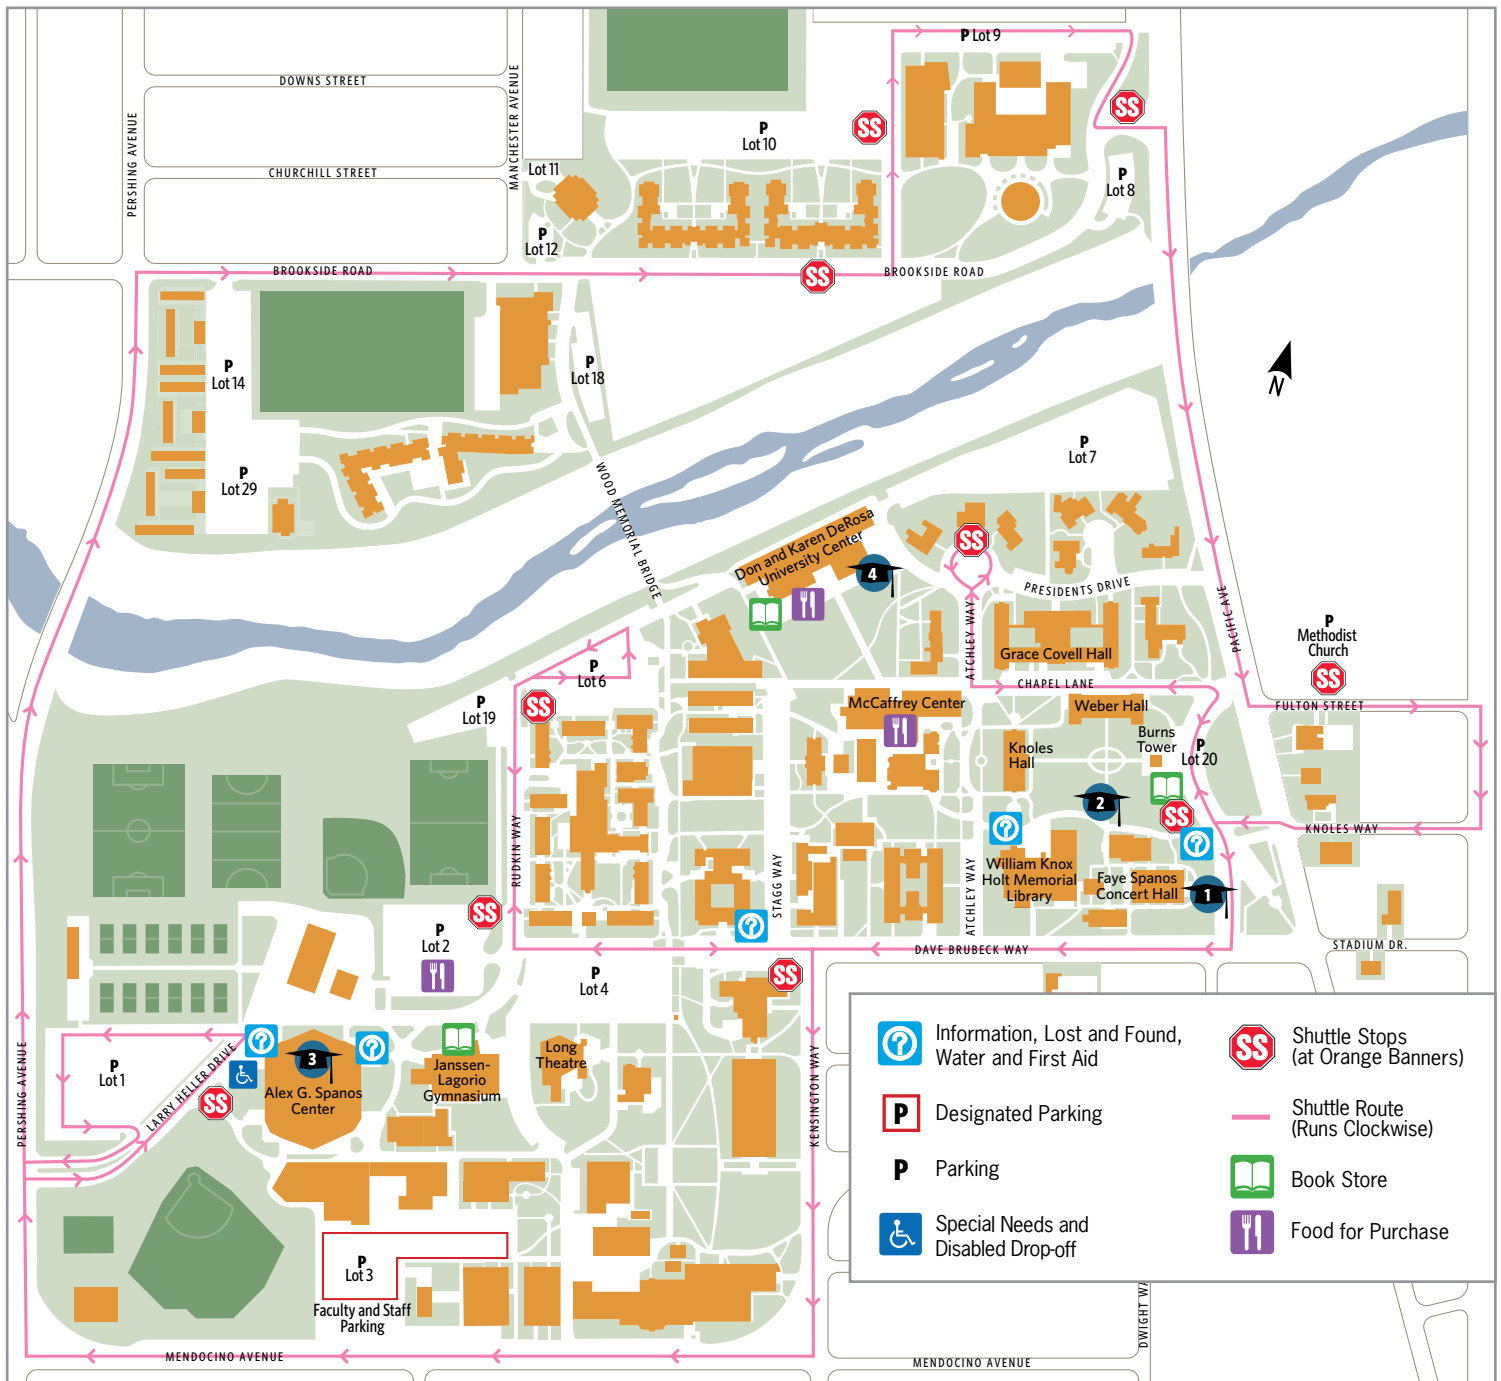

Distinctive academic dress can be traced back to the universities of the Middle Ages when university students and faculty wore the robes of the clergy. Today, three ranks of degrees are distinguished through variations in the robes, which also indicate the discipline and the university that awarded the degree.

In the United States, gowns generally are black. The color of the edging of the hood, and occasionally the color of the facing and crossbars on the doctoral gown, indicate the field of learning in which the degree is awarded. The colors of the lining of the hood are those of the institution awarding the degree. Generally, bachelor's and master's tassels are black, and doctoral tassels are gold. After graduation, the tassel is worn on the left side of the mortarboard. An individual's degree is revealed by the type of gown and width of the edging on the hood.

Bachelor's gowns have full, pointed sleeves with no trimming. Hoods have a two-inch edging. Master's gowns prior to 1960 had full, closed sleeves with the arm emerging through a slit at the elbow. In 1960, the gown was modified to replace the elbow slit with an opening at the wrist, and the gown was made to close. Hoods have a three-inch edging. Doctor's gowns are made of silk, have rounded sleeves, velvet facing down the front and three velvet crossbars on each sleeve. Hoods have side panels and a five-inch facing.

Why Does Pacific Matter?

Pacific matters because of our rich history. Because our community outreach positively impacts the Central Valley, greater Sacramento and the Northern California megaregion. Because our faculty and staff are nationally renowned for developing the whole student. And because our students are making a profound difference by working, volunteering, conducting research and lending a hand to hundreds of businesses and organizations that benefit from their time and talent. Pacific matters because from Sacramento to San Francisco to Stockton, our university community lives, learns and leads with purpose.

400 alumni of Pacific's McGeorge School of Law now serve or have served as state or federal judges.

The official team dentists for all five San Francisco Bay Area professional sports teams (Giants, Warriors, 49ers, Raiders and San Jose Sharks) are alumni of Pacific's Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry.

PACIFIC HAIL!

Words and Music by Lois Warner Winston '23

From o'er the rugged mountains standing high;

From out the broad low valleys, 'neath the sky;

Our alma mater calls, We cannot fail,

Our voices blend in praise, Pacific Hail! Pacific Hail!

Long may her flaming torch give out its light;

Long may her spirit guide us in the right;

To her we pledge our hearts, We dare not fail;

To her we raise our song,

Pacific Hail! Pacific Hail!
